Monday 4th July 7.30

Keynote Lecture:

Rev Prof June Boyce-Tillman
Professor of Applied Music
University of Winchester

“Out of the Shadows... the Myths we Live by”

This lecture will look at the fluidity within the human personality as creative and liberating

(followed by Tuesday Workshop)

“Seeing in the Dark”
will be performed in The Gallery
on Tuesday Evening

by Rev Prof June Boyce-Tillman,
who writes:

‘...using a mixture of song, story, movement
and music to explore the relationship between healing, theology and the arts. Through the performance runs a hymn I wrote on the theological questions of child abuse...’

Other Speakers include:

Dr David McDonald Consultant Psychiatrist:

“A Psychological Approach to Shadow, Sexuality and Spirituality”

Dr Keith Sharpe
Author of ‘The Gay Gospels’

“Celebrating LGBT people as God’s intentional Creation”

Through his unpacking of the ‘terror texts’ used to attack LGBT people and the bringing to light of Johannine texts, towards liberation, Keith Sharpe will open up a celebratory space for us all.

Revds Elizabeth and Stanley Baxter
